PRESENTATION Work must be suitably framed and ready for hanging. Drawings, watercolors and pastels must be under Plexiglass or glass. If an artist opts to not have work under glass, it is under their own risk and work will not be insured for damage. All work, glass, and frames must be clean, undamaged and ready for a show.

No wire clip frames/frameless clips will be accepted. No canvas boards with sticky tabs as hanging mechanisms will be accepted. Wrapped canvas pieces with finished sides will be accepted, but sides must be clean and/or intentionally finished --- and pieces should have hanging wires attached on arrival. Photos: photos on any media (metal, canvas, archival paper, acrylic, etc.) will be accepted -- provided they fit within the size restrictions and are clean and hang-ready. If at all possible, please try to avoid use of gold frames for group shows such as this -- they are very hard to group and as a result, will often find themselves in an isolated space in the gallery.

SALES All work will be for sale. 60% proceeds from sales will go to the artist and 40% proceeds will go to 610 Gallery, Ridgway Chautauqua Society.

FEES $25.00 entry fee per piece, maximum submission: 2 pieces. Entry fees are paid through the entry forms. Credit cards may be called-in or processed when artwork is dropped off. Fees are nonrefundable on accepted works. There are no handling fees but artists are responsible for shipping costs, if any.

SUBMISSION Gallery reserves the right to reject hanging a piece of work. We will not accept work late for the 2024 show. If work is rejected, an alternate piece may be submitted or fee will be refunded to artists. Work must remain for the duration of the exhibition.

Items should be shipped in a sturdy, reusable container. No plastic peanuts, please. Artists are responsible for shipping costs to and from the gallery and insurance in transit.
